About ICPS

The International Centre for Parliamentary Studies exists to promote effective policy making and good governance through better interaction between Parliaments, Governments and other stakeholders in society. The Centre's primary focus is the empowerment of Human Capital through Capacity Building.

What we can provide

As well as the Professional Certificate in Electoral Processes that we run on a regular basis in London, we are able to deliver high quality electoral training for your organisation on your own premises, or any other venue of your choice in your country, focusing on specific electoral-related issues that are most relevant to you and your colleagues.

Our experts can modify the content of all of our programmes to suit the exact context in which you are working and we have a well established process of discussing clients' particular needs and delivering a tailored agenda to meet these.

One popular solution is for ICPS to adapt the one-week open course to reflect your current needs and interests. This could cover a broad range of areas, some of which are listed below:

- ▶ voter registration
- ▶ the role of technology in the electoral process
- ▶ working with stakeholders
- ▶ communication strategies
- ▶ project management
- ▶ managing data
- ▶ training personnel
- ▶ managing polling day
- ▶ holding the ballot count
- ▶ technology and counting the vote
- ▶ awarding and managing contracts
- ▶ ensuring robustness and transparency
- ▶ working with Election Observation Missions and the media
- ▶ delivering reliable and internationally credible results
- ▶ international standards in elections
- ▶ complaints management
- ▶ electoral psychology

What are the benefits?

There are a range of benefits to running bespoke electoral training for both individuals and employers.

- ✓ Continued professional development: Participants will improve their professional capabilities and skills specifically in the field of electoral processes. These skills are immediately applicable in the workplace.
- ✓ Cost effective: In-house training reduces the cost per participant significantly as there are no additional travel or accommodation costs for participants.
- ✓ High-quality training: ICPS is able to draw upon a wide range of experts to ensure that we deliver the best training possible.
- ✓ Professional accreditation: If you choose to run a tailored version of our Professional Certificate in Electoral Processes, we offer the same Chartered Management Institute (CMI) certification to all those attending the training, even if it is delivered in your home country.
- ✓ Tailored to your needs: The training programme will be tailored to meet your specific needs and to cover the subject areas that are most important to you.

Testimonials

The feedback on our bespoke training programmes is excellent, with particular recognition given to the high quality of our trainers and the practical and applied nature of the training. Please find some examples of our most recent training programmes below:

Central Election Commission of Albania (CEC)

"It was very useful, especially on the role of the Election Management Body and for the preparation of a mid-term strategy of the Central Election Commission."

"There was a high level of professionalism from the trainers who tackled the major areas of concern and interest."

"It is a highly effective course. It will help a lot; we learned and we brainstormed."

Malawi Electoral Commission

"The course brought in presenters who were very knowledgeable in their subject areas."

"It gave thought provoking lessons that I would like to follow-up on in my duties."

"It was very interactive and presenters showed a mastery of their subject."

"It has been enjoyable and eye opening."

Central Electoral Commission of Georgia (CEC)

"The meetings both with the election administration representatives and electoral experts have been interesting and useful for the CEC delegation, and have assisted us in learning more about international practices and the challenges of conducting elections."
